Circle of Excellence

Donnabelle Quiocho-Weigel is a nurse manager at Los Angeles General Medical Center in California. Donnabelle is an innovative manager who initiated charge nurse bedside rounding during handoff reports for all resource nurses and team members to be acquainted with patients in the unit and identify patient safety concerns early in the shift. As co-lead of the new Equality, Diversity, Inclusion, and Anti-racism (EDIA) Committee, Donnabelle was instrumental in developing the Department of Health Services' EDIA Strategic Plan, recruiting new members, and promoting kindness and inclusion in the workplace. As the lead person of experience (POE) for the Outcome-Driven Acuity System, she provides one-on-one guidance to POEs on accurately performing acuity audits for inter-reliability. She participated in developing the DHS ORCHID electronic health record, homeless patient discharge documentation, Sexual Orientation Gender Identification documentation, and Heparin Infusion Management.
