ACCNS-N Renewal HANDBOOK

Neonatal Clinical Nurse Specialist (wellness through acute care)

As healthcare becomes increasingly complex and challenging, certification has emerged as a mark of excellence showing patients, employers and the public that a nurse possesses a defined body of knowledge and has met the rigorous requirements to achieve specialty and/or subspecialty certification.

AACN Certification Corporation programs were created to protect healthcare consumers by validating the knowledge of nurses who care for and/or influence the care delivered to the acutely and critically ill. We are pleased to provide you with this handbook with information about how to renew your ACCNS-N certification exam.

Today, nurses hold more than 140,000 certifications from AACN Certification Corporation.

Specialty Certifications

CCRN® is for the nurse providing care to or influencing the care of acutely/critically ill adult, pediatric or neonatal patients. Three eligibility pathways are available:

- Direct Care - for the nurse who provides direct care to acutely/critically ill adult, pediatric or neonatal patients.
- Knowledge Professional - for the nurse who influences the care delivered to acutely/critically ill adult, pediatric or neonatal patients, but does not primarily or exclusively provide direct care.
- Tele-critical Care - for the nurse working in a tele-critical care setting monitoring/caring for acutely/critically ill adult patients from a remote location.

PCCN® is for the progressive care nurse. Two pathways of eligibility are available:

- Direct Care - for the nurse providing direct care to acutely ill adult patients.
- Knowledge Professional - for the nurse who influences the care delivered to acutely ill adult patients, but does not primarily or exclusively provide direct care.

Subspecialty Certifications

CMC® is for the certified nurse providing direct care to acutely/critically ill adult cardiac patients.

CSC® is for the certified nurse providing direct care to acutely/critically ill adult patients during the first 48 hours after cardiac surgery.

Advanced Practice Certifications

ACNPC-AG® is for the nurse educated at the graduate level as an adult-gerontology acute care nurse practitioner (AGACNP).

The ACCNS credentials are for nurses educated at the graduate level as clinical nurse specialists to provide care across the continuum from wellness through acute care:

ACCNS-AG® is for the clinical nurse specialist educated to care for adult-gerontology patients.

ACCNS-P® is for the clinical nurse specialist educated to care for pediatric patients.

ACCNS-N® is for the clinical nurse specialist educated to care for neonatal patients.

With implementation of the Consensus Model in 2015, ACNPC and CCNS are available as renewal options only:

Certification Program

Definition

Certification is a process by which a nongovernmental agency validates, based upon predetermined standards, an individual nurse's knowledge for safe and effective practice in a defined functional or clinical area of nursing.

ACCNS-N is an entry-level advanced practice certification for clinical nurse specialists (CNSs) educated at the graduate level to provide advanced nursing care across the continuum of healthcare services – wellness through acute care – to meet the specialized needs of the neonatal patient population.

Code of Ethics

AACN and AACN Certification Corporation consider the American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses foundational for nursing practice, providing a framework for making ethical decisions and fulfilling responsibilities to the public, colleagues and the profession.

AACN Certification Corporation's mission of public protection supports a standard of excellence that certified nurses have a responsibility to read, understand and act in a manner congruent with the ANA Code of Ethics for Nurses. To access the ANA Code of Ethics, visit www.aacn.org/certification > Overview > Learn More.

ACCNS-N® Registered Service Mark

ACCNS-N is a registered service mark and denotes certification as a neonatal clinical nurse specialist as granted by AACN Certification Corporation. Clinical nurse specialists who have not achieved ACCNS-N certification or whose ACCNS-N certification has lapsed are not authorized to use the ACCNS-N credential.

Administration and Sponsorship

The certification programs are administered by AACN Certification Corporation. The certification exams are conducted in cooperation with PSI Services.

Membership Requirements

There are no association membership requirements to participate in AACN Certification Corporation programs.

Nondiscrimination Policy

It is the policy of AACN Certification Corporation, its Board of Directors, committee members and staff to comply with all applicable laws that prohibit discrimination in employment or service provision because of a person's race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, national origin, or because of any other protected characteristic.

Recognition of Certification

Candidates who meet all eligibility requirements and pass the ACCNS-N certification exam may use "ACCNS-N" after their licensing title. ACCNS-N is used in recognition of professional competence as a neonatal clinical nurse specialist for a 5-year period of certification.

ACCNS-N is a registered service mark. It is not punctuated with periods. The proper use of ACCNS-N is as follows:

Chris Smith, RN, MSN, ACCNS-N

Misuse of the credential is viewed by AACN Certification Corporation as misleading to the public and may result in denial or revocation of certification.

A listing of ACCNS-N-certified nurses is maintained by AACN Certification Corporation and may be reported in its publications and/or listed on its website.

Certification status is available to the public via the online Certification Verification system, available at www.aacn.org/certification.

Name and Address Changes

Renewal notifications will be emailed to you starting 4 months prior to your scheduled renewal date. You are responsible for notifying AACN Certification Corporation should your name and/or address change at any time before or after you become certified. Failure to do so may result in not receiving information necessary for certification renewal.

Please notify us of any address or email address changes; you may update your profile as follows:

- Online at www.aacn.org/myaccount,
- Email info@aacn.org, or
- Call AACN Customer Care at 800-899-2226

The following changes must be made by calling AACN Customer Care at 800-899-2226:

- Name changes
- Address changes for exam candidates during 90-day testing window

Candidates are responsible for renewing their certification even if they do not receive a renewal notice.

ACCNS-N Renewal Policies

AACN Certification Corporation may adopt additional eligibility requirements at its sole discretion. Any such requirements will be designed to establish, for purposes of ACCNS-N certification, the adequacy of a candidate's knowledge in care of the acutely/critically ill.

Late or retroactive renewal is not available for ACCNS-N certification. To maintain a current ACCNS-N certification, renewal must be completed prior to your certification expiration date.

To reobtain certification you would then need to meet the current ACCNS-N initial exam eligibility requirements (based on educational preparation) and pass the ACCNS-N exam.

ACCNS-N Certification Renewal

Renew online up to 4 months prior to your scheduled renewal date at www.aacn.org/certification > Renew Certification.

Purpose and Limitations of Renewal Options

The purpose of certification renewal is to promote continued competence. The renewal process helps to maintain an up-to-date knowledge base through one of the following options:

- Practice hours and CE Points including Pharmacology CE
- Practice hours, Pharmacology CE and passing the certification exam
- CE Points including Pharmacology CE and passing the certification exam.

Following are the limitations to the components of the renewal options:

- CE limitations include content quality and relevance to practice as well as an individual's ability to self-select CEs most pertinent to the individual's practice and educational needs.
- Limitations of practice hours include the quality of the practice environment and limitations on learning opportunities.
- One limitation of the exam is not assessing new competencies, as exam competencies were validated through initial certification.

Requiring multiple components for renewal rather than one decreases the limitations and furthers the goal of continued competence.

Eligibility

Candidates for ACCNS-N renewal must hold a current, unencumbered U.S.¹ RN or APRN license.

- An unencumbered license has not been subjected to formal discipline by the board of nursing in the state(s) in which you practiced during the 5-year certification period and had no provisions or conditions that limited your nursing practice.
- Provisions or conditions may include, but are not limited to, direct supervision of practice, drug administration limitations and/or practice area exclusions.
- Documentation of all provisions and conditions from the board or its designee must be reviewed prior to approval for renewal.

- Certificants must notify AACN Certification Corporation within 30 days if any provisions or conditions are placed against their RN or APRN license(s).

The name and contact information for your supervisor or a professional colleague (RN or physician) who can verify practice hours must be provided. The verifier need not be ACCNS-N-certified.

Nurses who hold an encumbered license, meaning a provision or condition that limits their nursing practice has been placed against their RN and/or APRN license, may be eligible for Conditional Certification. Email APRNCert@aacn.org to inquire.

- Conditional Certification is a temporary status granted to a nurse seeking APRN certification who has a provision or condition placed against their RN and/or APRN license.
- Conditional status will be changed to Active status once the provision or condition against the RN and/or APRN license has been removed and the license is unencumbered.
- If the SBON suspends or revokes the nurse's license and he/she cannot practice, certification will be revoked.

AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care

The ACCNS-N certification program is organized using the AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care™ as a framework. All competencies are from nationally recognized organizations such as the National Association of Clinical Nurse Specialists and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing.

The basic tenet of the Synergy Model is that optimal patient outcomes can be produced through the synergistic interaction between the needs of the patient and the competencies of the nurse. AACN Certification Corporation is committed to ensuring that certified nursing practice is based on the needs of patients. Integration of the AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care into AACN Certification Corporation's certification programs puts emphasis on the patient and says to the world that patients come first.

The Synergy Model creates a comprehensive look at the patient. It puts the patient in the center of nursing practice. The model identifies nursing's unique contributions to patient care and uses language to describe the professional nurse's role. It provides nursing with a venue that clearly states what we do for patients and allows us to start linking ourselves to, and defining ourselves within, the context of the patient and patient outcomes.

Patient Characteristics

The Synergy Model encourages nurses to view patients in a holistic manner rather than the “body systems” medical model. Each patient and family is unique, with a varying capacity for health and vulnerability to illness. Each patient, regardless of the clinical setting, brings a set of unique characteristics to the care situation. Depending on where they are on the healthcare continuum, patients may display varying levels of the following characteristics:

|---|---|
| Resiliency | Capacity to return to a restorative level of functioning using compensatory/coping mechanisms; the ability to bounce back quickly after an insult |
| Vulnerability | Susceptibility to actual or potential stressors that may adversely affect patient outcomes |
| Stability | Ability to maintain a steady-state equilibrium |
| Complexity | Intricate entanglement of two or more systems (e.g., body, family, therapies) |
| Resource Availability | Extent of resources (e.g., technical, fiscal, personal, psychological and social) the patient/family/community bring to the situation |
| Participation in Care | Extent to which patient/family engages in aspects of care |
| Participation in Decision-Making | Extent to which patient/family engages in decision-making |
| Predictability | A characteristic that allows one to expect a certain course of events or course of illness |

FOR EXAMPLE:

A healthy, uninsured, 40-year-old woman undergoing a pre-employment physical could be described as an individual who is (a) stable (b) not complex (c) very predictable (d) resilient (e) not vulnerable (f) able to participate in decision-making and care, but (g) has inadequate resource availability.

On the other hand: a critically ill, insured infant with multisystem organ failure can be described as an individual who is (a) unstable (b) highly complex (c) unpredictable (d) highly resilient (e) vulnerable (f) unable to become involved in decision-making and care, but (g) has adequate resource availability.

Nurse Characteristics

Nursing care reflects an integration of knowledge, skills and experience necessary to meet the needs of patients and families. Thus, nurse characteristics are derived from patient needs and include:

|-----------------------------------|---|
| Clinical Judgment | Clinical reasoning, which includes clinical decision-making, critical thinking and a global grasp of the situation, coupled with APRN skills acquired through a process of integrating formal and informal experiential knowledge and evidence-based guidelines. Includes differential diagnosis. |
| Advocacy/ Moral Agency | Working on another's behalf and representing the concerns of the patient/family and nursing staff; serving as a moral agent in identifying and helping to resolve ethical and clinical concerns within and outside the clinical setting. |
| Caring Practices | APRN activities that create a compassionate, supportive and therapeutic environment for patients and staff, with the aim of promoting comfort and healing and preventing unnecessary suffering. Includes but is not limited to vigilance, engagement and responsiveness of caregivers, including family and healthcare personnel. Content in this category includes pain management, infection control, risk assessment and the clinical nurse specialist/patient relationship. |
| Collaboration | Working with others (e.g., patients, families, healthcare providers) in a way that promotes/encourages each person's contributions toward achieving optimal/realistic patient/family goals. Includes initiating referrals, providing consultation and the coordination of inter- and interdisciplinary teams to develop or revise plans of care focused on the concerns of the patient, family or both. |
| Systems Thinking | Body of knowledge and tools that allow the APRN to manage whatever environmental and system resources exist for the patient/family and staff, within or across healthcare and non-healthcare systems. Includes analysis and promotion of cost-effective resource utilization that results in optimal patient outcomes. |
| Response to Diversity | The sensitivity to recognize, appreciate and incorporate differences into the provision of care. Differences may include, but are not limited to, cultural differences, spiritual beliefs, gender, race, ethnicity, lifestyle, socioeconomic status, age and values. |
| Facilitation of Learning | The ability to facilitate learning for patients/families, nursing staff, other members of the healthcare team and community. Includes both formal and informal facilitation of learning. |
| Clinical Inquiry | The ongoing process of questioning and evaluating practice and providing informed practice. Creating changes through evidence-based practice, research utilization and experiential knowledge. |

Nurses become competent within each continuum at a level that best meets the fluctuating needs of their population of patients. More compromised patients have more severe or complex needs, requiring nurses to have advanced knowledge and skills in an associated continuum.

FOR EXAMPLE:

If the patient was stable but unpredictable, minimally resilient and vulnerable, primary competencies of the nurse would be centered on clinical judgment and caring practices (which includes vigilance). If the patient was vulnerable, unable to participate in decision-making and care, and had inadequate resource availability, the primary competencies of the nurse would focus on advocacy and moral agency, collaboration and systems thinking.

Although all eight competencies are essential for contemporary nursing practice, each assumes more or less importance depending on a patient's characteristics. Synergy results when a patient's needs and characteristics are matched with the nurse's competencies.

The certification program is also based on the three spheres of impact in which CNSs operate: Patient, Nurses/Nursing Practice and Organizations/Systems. A sphere of impact identifies the focus of practice activities and target outcomes associated with the area. The certification exam is based on the activities performed by CNSs in connection with the eight nurse characteristics in the context of the three spheres of impact.

Based on the most recent AACN Certification Corporation study of nursing practice, the test plans for our certification exams reflect the Synergy Model as well as findings related to nursing care of the patient population studied (e.g., CNS practice in the care of neonatal patients, covering the spectrum of wellness through acute care).

For more information about the AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care visit www.aacn.org.

ACCNS-N Renewal Audit

In compliance with standard regulatory practices, AACN Certification Corporation conducts random audits following certificants' successful renewal. Certificants are not notified in advance when being audited.

Certificants selected for audit are notified via email and have a period of 60 days to submit the required verification materials, which include:

- Copy of RN or APRN license
- CE Renewal Points Log
- Copies of course certificates
- Form to verify practice hours

Failure to respond to or pass an audit may result in revocation of certification. Revocation may include notification of the candidate's employer and state board of nursing, as appropriate.

Certificants who successfully complete ACCNS-N renewal should continue to keep personal records of CE Renewal Point activities for at least 5 years to submit in the event that an audit is performed.

AACN Certification Corporation reserves the right to conduct additional audits as necessary.

Revocation of Certification

AACN Certification Corporation may revoke certification, or renewal of certification may be denied, for any reason deemed appropriate including, but not limited to, the following:

- Falsification of a certification exam application or renewal application
 - Falsification of any information provided to AACN Certification Corporation
 - Failure to meet/maintain eligibility requirements
 - Failure to pay fees
 - Failure to meet deadlines
 - Failure to respond to or pass an audit
 - Misrepresentation of certification status or misuse of certification
 - Conviction of a felony
 - Cheating (or reasonable evidence of intent to cheat) on the exam
 - Sharing exam content
 - Provisions or conditions placed on RN or APRN licensure during the certification renewal period
- Certificants must notify AACN Certification Corporation within 30 days of any provisions or conditions placed against their RN or APRN license(s).

In the event of revocation, notification may be sent to the candidate's employer and state board of nursing, where appropriate. The candidate will be notified that he/she may be prohibited from reapplying for any AACN certification exam for a period of up to 3 years.

Fees paid for certification renewal are not refunded.

Review and Appeal of Certification Eligibility

The review and appeal process is available to individuals whose certification status has been denied, expired or revoked.

Internal Review Panel (IRP)

The review process is conducted by the staff of AACN Certification Corporation.

Initial applicants and prospective applicants may request a review of eligibility within 45 days of notification of denial. The written request should describe their eligibility and how it conforms to the certification program.

Requests for review of expired or revoked certification status should include information and documents to support the request for reinstatement. Requests for review should be received within 30 days of notification of certification expiration or revocation.

Please email your request for review to:

certification@aacn.org

Or mail to:

Certification Specialist
AACN Certification Corporation
27071 Aliso Creek Road
Aliso Viejo, CA 92656-3399

The IRP will review the documentation provided and render a decision within 30 days. Additional information may be requested by the IRP. The IRP decision will be communicated via phone or email to the individual requesting review.

Appeal of Eligibility, Exam and Renewal Determination

A candidate who believes he/she was unjustly denied eligibility for an exam, who challenges results of an exam or who believes he/she was unjustly denied renewal of certification may request reconsideration of the decision by emailing a written appeal to certification@aacn.org.

The candidate for certification or renewal of certification must provide convincing evidence that a severe disadvantage was afforded the candidate during processing of an application for exam or renewal of certification or prior to or during administration of an exam.

The appeal must be made within 45 days of receipt of the adverse decision (for example, a score report or any other official correspondence related to certification or renewal of certification from AACN Certification Corporation or its agents). The written appeal must also indicate the specific relief requested.

The appeal process is conducted by the AACN Certification Corporation Appeals Panel. The Appeals Panel is comprised of certified peer volunteers who have an understanding of the credential being appealed and are not members of the internal review process. Panel members sign confidentiality agreements as well as conflict of interest forms prior to participation.

The Appeals Panel will review the documentation provided and render a decision within 30 days of date of appeal. The decision of the Appeals Panel is final and will be communicated via email to the requesting individual.

For questions about the review and appeal process, please call AACN Certification Corporation at 800-899-2226.
